REGULATIONS.

I.—All orders whatever for the government and regulation of the Academy emanate from the Committee of Management, whose decisions are delivered, through their Chairman, to the different officers of the establishment.

II.—All branches of Music are taught in the Academy; and Students may choose any one of these for their principal study. Should the branch for which a male Student enters be Composition, Organ, Pianoforte, or Harp, he may be required to learn, in addition, any orchestral instrument the Committee may choose for him.

All Students are required to learn Harmony and Pianoforte; all are required to attend the Sight-Singing Class; and, when competent, to take part in the Orchestral and Choral practices, and in all public performances of the Academy.

If the branch for which a Student enters be Singing, he or she is required to attend the Elocution Class.

No Student can be admitted who does not purpose to remain for at least a year in the Academy.

III.—The year is divided into three Terms:—In 1885-6, the Michaelmas and Lent Terms of thirteen weeks each, and the Easter Term of twelve-and-a-half weeks; the Michaelmas Term commences on the third Monday in September, the Lent Term on the third Monday in January, and the Easter Term in 1886 on the first Monday in May. There are vacations of four weeks at Christmas, of two weeks at Easter, and of seven-and-a half weeks at the close of the Easter Term.

The Entrance Fee is Five Guineas. The Fee for the entire course of Study is Eleven Guineas per Term.

The Course of Instruction includes Two Weekly Lessons in a Principal Study, one in Harmony, one in a Second Study when deemed desirable by the Principal, one in Elocution for Singers, and the advantages of the Sight Singing Class, the Violin Quartet and Accompaniment Classes, and the Orchestral and Choral Practices.

An extra fee of Four Guineas a Term for One Lesson a Week, or Seven Guineas a Term for Two Lessons a Week, is paid by Students who pursue an additional principal Study.

All payments are made in advance.

Notice must be given of the withdrawal of a Student.

IV.—The Operatic Class for the study of the lyrical drama is open to composers, singers, and accompanists. Students already accepted in the Academy are admitted to this class on payment of an additional fee of Three Guineas a Term each.

V.—The classes for the English, Italian, French, and German languages, may be attended by the Students on payment of an additional fee of One Guinea a term each, for any class.

Lectures on Acoustics, will be delivered in the Michaelmas and Lent Terms, for which there is no extra fee, but a small fee is paid for attending the Demonstrations in this subject.

VI.—Students are admitted at the commencement of each Term and Half-Term. Candidates for admission must attend for examination, bringing music they can perform, at Eleven o'Clock on the Saturday before each Term or Half-Term, with a recommendation from a Subscriber, a Member, an Associate, an Honorary Member, or a Local Representative.

The fee for examination is One Guinea, which is returned on the admission of the candidate.

Candidates residing at a distance from London may obtain information and advice respecting the Academy, from any of the Local Representatives (see list pages 4 and 5).

VII.—The Students are required to pay implicit obedience to all persons placed in authority over them, and to attend punctually at the hours appointed for their instruction, and at all Orchestral and Choral Practices and Rehearsals, if they be members of the band or choir, and at all Public Performances, whether or not they be members of the band or choir.

- VIII.—As a mark of particular distinction, advanced Students are appointed Sub-Professors, and required to give instruction in the Academy, under the supervision of their own Professors. This appointment is for a period not exceeding three years, and is relinquished if the pupil leave the Academy before the expiration of the period.
- IX.—No Student is allowed to undertake any public engagement, without the sanction of the Principal.
- X.—No Student is allowed to publish any composition without the sanction of the Principal; and a copy of all compositions published with his sanction must be presented to the Library of the Academy.
- XI.—Students of the Organ have the privilege of practising on the Pedallier, of Messrs. Pleyel and Co., without charge.
- XII.—Any infringement or violation of the Regulations, or any discreditable or improper conduct, will subject the Student, at the discretion of the Committee, to dismissal from the Institution.
- XIII.—On leaving the Academy, or during the Term next after leaving, Students may undergo an examination. If the examination prove satisfactory, they will receive a Certificate, and, in cases of special merit and ability, the additional distinction of being made an Associate of the Institution. Applications on this subject cannot be received later than the next Term after a pupil leaves the Institution.
- XIV.—Students who distinguish themselves in the Musical profession after quitting the Institution, may be, by the Committee of Management, created Members of the Royal Academy of Music.

The above Regulations are appointed by the Committee of Management, acting under the Charter given by his late most Gracious Majesty King George IV.

Signed,

G. A. MACFARREN.

Chairman of the Committee of Management.
